More Info:

Take HWY 26 to the E Lolo Pass Rd turnoff (about an hour from Vancouver). Camp Lolo is located 3 miles up E. Lolo Pass Rd. Your private apartment has its own entrance, fireplace, queen bed, Bath and kitchen with toaster oven, dishwasher, full size fridge. Out your front door is a private outdoor seating area with fireplace. You can stroll around the grounds and find many quiet spaces for reflection, meditation, and peace. A regulation horseshoe pit is here for you to enjoy as well as ax throwing (!!!), cornhole, a yurt and garden. Strong Wi-Fi, Roku TV, and DVD player in your living room and lots of books, games, and puzzles. Groceries are 10 minutes away in Welches. Lots and lots of forest and mountain lake trails are only minutes away.

Rick and Pat Zimmer will be available to get you settled and offer suggestions for area activities, hikes and dining recommendations.

Relax

Your Camp Lolo apartment provides comfort and privacy during your stay. The apartment is completely furnished with its own bedroom with queen bed, fully furnished kitchen, bath, living room with cozy fireplace and a lovely seating area outside your private entrance.

Explore

Deer often visit Camp Lolo and you might catch sight of wild turkeys or a soaring eagle. Black bear and cougar are in the area, but rarely seen. The Sandy River Trail is a short walk from your apartment and many more trails await you during your stay. X-Country and Downhill skiing, Snow Boarding and Snowshoeing are only minutes away. Lolo Pass Rd is plowed all winter; however, in heavy snow the driveway may be difficult to access.

*Access to private 5-circuit petite Labyrinth.

*Custom bunkhouse for possible use beginning in April, 2055

Enjoy!
